MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM : Edward W. Proctor
Deputy Director for IntelligenceSUBJECT : Report on UNCTAD IV for Ambassador Scranton and Other Selected Officials

1. Attached at Tab A is a letter to Ambassador Scranton for your signature. The letter forwards a memorandum, Preparations of the Developing Countries for UNCTAD IV (at Tab B).

2. I recommend that you send a copy of the memorandum to Ambassador Scranton by way of responding to the interest he expressed during his recent Agency briefing on the political implications of the developed-developing country dialogue on economic matters. We prepared this study in response to a request from Mr. John Bushnell, Deputy Assistant Secretary of Treasury, and we plan to disseminate it to other high-level consumers in State, Treasury, and the National Security Council.

3. In the event you want to bring up with the President the question of UNCTAD IV and its implications, we shall be addressing the matter further in the PDB and the NID as the conference itself draws closer.

The Honorable William W. Scranton
United States Representative to the United Nations
799 United Nations Plaza
New York, New York 10017

Dear Bill:

During your recent briefings at the Agency on UN matters you expressed interest in the question of the political implications of a Western failure to respond adequately to the demands of the developing countries in various UN economic forums.

In this regard, I think you will find the enclosed memorandum, Preparations of the Developing Countries for UNCTAD IV, to be of interest. I am also disseminating this memorandum to a number of people in State, Treasury, and the NSC.

Sincerely,

George Bush
Director
